JAPANESE LANGUAGE BOOT CAMP PROGRAM

Improve Your Job-Hunting Interview Skills

Temple University, Japan Campus is offering a special, short-term intensive Japanese language program (“TUJ Japanese Language Boot Camp”) that will provide a limited number of current students and recent graduates with an opportunity to develop and sharpen the skills necessary to successfully handle job interviews in Japanese.

This non-credit program is supported by a full-scholarship (“TUJ Japanese Language Boot Camp Scholarship”) for all successful applicants. The outcome of this program will not affect students’ undergraduate coursework in any way.

The combined Boot Camp and Scholarship application is attached below. Applicants must sign and submit the attached Japanese Language Boot Camp Scholarship Applicant Undertakings.

<Goals>

TUJ students and graduates who complete the program should be able to successfully handle a 30-40 minute job interview in Japanese. The program includes training to prepare answers to some basic questions, to understand what typical interview questions imply, to comfortably use keigo, and to build confidence to speak in front of Japanese interviewers.

<Cost and Scholarship>

Tuition: JPN 60,000

The tuition will be covered by a full scholarship for all successful candidates.

Scholarship awardees who withdraw from or fail to complete the program (at least 80% attendance of the classes) agree to return the full amount of the scholarship award.

<Boot Camp Content and Schedule>

The program has the following components:

1. Pre-Program Orientation (writing assignments):
 - A. Listing up target companies
 - B. Personal statement
 - C. Statement on reasons for applying to jobs in Japan
